OMICRON BECOME TO KERALA.

The Kerala government on Thursday issued new Covid-19 guidelines in view of the surging Omicron variant cases and the upcoming holiday season. As per a new directive, there will be a ban on New Year celebrations during the night hours, 50% occupancy limits in bars, clubs, hotels, restaurants and eateries.

Pinarayi Vijayan also directed that measures against the Omicron variant be intensified in view of its numbers rising to 57 in the state. Since the new variant spreads three to five times faster than the Delta version of COVID-19, Omicron was likely to increase the number of coronavirus cases leading to a third wave, he said and added that measures were being taken to deal with it. Kerala Health Department on Wednesday said with 19 more people testing positive for the Omicron variant of COVID-19 in the state, the total number of infections by the new variant in the state has reached 57.

The continuous of omicron will affect very badly to poorest peoples in Kerala. But still the hope of Kerala government can't stop said chief minister.
